	Assets	Version	8
Article 1. Purpose

The Procedure is adopted for assets protection and to implement information disclosure.

Article 2. Applicable Laws and Regulations

These procedures are adopted pursuant to Article 36-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act and Regulations governing acquisition and disposal of assets.

Article 3. Scope of assets:

- 1. Investments in stocks, government bonds, corporate bonds, financial bonds, securities representing interest in a fund, depositary receipts, call (put) warrants, beneficial interest securities, and asset-backed securities.
- 2. Real property (including land, houses and buildings, investment property, rights to use land, and construction enterprise inventory) and equipment.
- 3. Memberships.
- 4. Patents, copyrights, trademarks, franchise rights, and other intangible assets.
- 5. Right-of-use assets
- 6. Claims of financial institutions (including receivables, bills purchased and discounted, loans, and overdue receivables).
- 7. Derivatives.
- 8. Assets acquired or disposed of in connection with mergers, demergers, acquisitions, or transfer of shares in accordance with law.
- 9. Other major assets.

Article 4. Terms used in these Regulations are defined as follows:

- 1. Derivatives: Forward contracts, options contracts, futures contracts, leverage contracts, and swap contracts, and compound contracts combining the above products, whose value is derived from assets, interest rates, foreign exchange rates, indexes or other interests. The term "forward contracts" does not include insurance contracts, performance contracts, after-sales service contracts, long-term leasing contracts, or long-term purchase (sales) contracts.
- 2. Assets acquired or disposed through mergers, demergers, acquires, or transfer of shares in accordance with law: Refers to assets acquired or disposed through mergers, demergers, or acquires conducted under the Business Mergers and Acquires Act, Financial Holding Company Act, Financial Institution Merger Act and other acts, or to transfer of shares from another company through issuance of new shares of its own as the consideration therefor (hereinafter "transfer of shares") under Article 156, paragraph 3 of the Company Act.
- 3. Related party or subsidiary: As defined in the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers.
- 4. Professional appraiser: Refers to a real property appraiser or other person duly authorized by law to engage in the value appraisal of real property or equipment.
- 5. Date of occurrence: Refers to the date of contract signing, date of payment, date of consignment trade, date of transfer, dates of boards of directors resolutions, or other date that can confirm the counterpart and monetary amount of the transaction, whichever date is earlier; provided, for investment for which approval of the competent authority is required, the earlier of the above date or the date of receipt of approval by the competent authority shall apply.
- 6. Mainland China area investment: Refers to investments in the mainland China area

When judging whether a trading counterparty is a related party, in addition to legal formalities, the substance of the relationship shall also be considered.

2. Assessment and operating procedures

When a public company intends to acquire or dispose of real property or Right-to-use asset from or to a related party, or when it intends to acquire or dispose of assets other than real property from or to a related party and the transaction amount reaches 20 percent or more of paid-in capital, 10 percent or more of the company's total assets, or NT$300 million or more, except in trading of government bonds or bonds under repurchase and resale agreements, or subscription or redemption of money market funds issued by domestic securities investment trust enterprises, the company may not proceed to enter into a transaction contract or make a payment until the following matters have been approved by the board of directors and recognized by the supervisors:

i. The purpose, necessity and anticipated benefit of the acquisition or disposal of assets.

- ii. The reason for choosing the related party as a trading counterparty.
- iii. With respect to the acquisition of real property or Right-to-use asset from a related party, information regarding appraisal of the reasonableness of the preliminary transaction terms in accordance with paragraphs 1 and 4 of Article 12.
- iv. The date and price at which the related party originally acquired the real property, the original trading counterparty, and that trading counterparty's relationship to the company and its stakeholders.
- v. Monthly cash flow forecasts for the year commencing from the anticipated month of signing of the contract, and evaluation of the necessity of the transaction, and reasonableness of the funds utilization.
- vi. An appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion obtained in compliance with the preceding article.
- vii. Restrictive covenants and other important stipulations associated with the transaction.

With respect to the acquisition or disposal of business-use equipment between the company and its parent or subsidiaries, or subsidiaries that directly or indirectly hold 100% of the issued shares or total capital, the company's board of directors may pursuant to Article 9, paragraph 1, subparagraph 3 delegate the board chairman to decide such matters when the transaction is within a certain amount and have the decisions subsequently submitted to and ratified by the next board of directors meeting:

- 1. Obtain or dispose of equipment for business use or its right to use assets.
- 2. Acquire or dispose of the right to use real estate for business use.

Where the position of independent director has been created in accordance with the provisions of the Act, when a matter is submitted for discussion by the board of directors pursuant to paragraph 1, the board of directors shall take into full consideration each independent director's opinions. If an independent director objects to or expresses reservations about any matter, it shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of directors meeting.

Where an audit committee has been established in accordance with the provisions of the Act, the matters for which paragraph 1 requires of this procedure.

ii. Operational (hedging) strategy

- The Company engages in derivative trading transactions and shall aim at hedging. The trading should be selected to avoid the risks arising from the business operations of the company. The currency held must match the foreign currency demand of the company's actual import and export transactions. The company's overall internal position (referring to foreign currency income and expenditure) is the principle of flattening, thereby reducing the overall foreign exchange risk of the company and saving foreign exchange operating costs. Other special-purpose transactions are subject to careful assessment and may be carried out after the approval of the board of directors exceeds the authorized credit of the board of directors.
- iii. Division of powers and responsibilities
 - 1. finance department
 - A. Responsible for drafting the strategy of the entire company's derivative trading transactions.
 - B. Derivatives trading positions held shall be evaluated at least once per week; however, positions for hedge trades required by business shall be evaluated at least twice per month. Evaluation reports shall be submitted to senior management personnel authorized by the board of directors.
 - C. The transaction is executed in accordance with the authorization and the strategy.
 - D. When there is a major change in the market and the trader judges that the strategy is not applicable, the assessment report is submitted at any time, and the strategy is re-planned and approved by the general manager as the basis for engaging in the transaction.
 - 2. Accounting staff
 - A. Perform transaction confirmation.
 - B. Review whether the transaction is based on authorization rights and established policies.
 - C. The evaluation is carried out monthly and the evaluation report is submitted to the general manager.
 - D. Accounting and accounting processing.
 - E. Declaration and announcement in accordance with the regulations of the Financial Management Association.
 - 3. Delivery personnel: Perform delivery tasks.
 - 4. Derivative commodity verification authority
 - A. Derivative goods of hedging trading, according to the actual income and expenditure of the company's income and expenditure, are executed by the general manager.
 - B. For derivative products of other specific-purpose transactions, the total amount of the contractual portion of the cumulative position is limited to US$200,000. If the amount exceeds the above amount, it must be approved by the board of directors, and it can be acquisitioned according to the policy directive.

2. Audit

The company's internal audit personnel shall periodically make a determination of the suitability of internal controls on derivatives and conduct a monthly audit of how

i. Assessment and operating procedures

- The company that conducts a merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of shares, prior to convening the board of directors to resolve on the matter, shall engage a CPA, attorney, or securities underwriter to give an opinion on the reasonableness of the share exchange ratio, acquisition price, or distribution of cash or other property to shareholders, and submit it to the board of directors for deliberation and passage. However, the requirement of obtaining an aforesaid opinion on reasonableness issued by an expert may be exempted in the case of a merger by a public company of a subsidiary in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital, and in the case of a merger between subsidiaries in which the public company directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the respective subsidiaries' issued shares or authorized capital.
- ii. The company participating in a merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of shares shall prepare a public report to shareholders detailing important contractual content and matters relevant to the merger, demerger, or acquisition prior to the shareholders meeting and include it along with the expert opinion referred to in paragraph 1 of the preceding Article when sending shareholders notification of the shareholders meeting for reference in deciding whether to approve the merger, demerger, or acquisition. Provided, where a provision of another act exempts a company from convening a shareholders meeting to approve the merger, demerger, or acquisition, this restriction shall not apply.

Where the shareholders meeting of any one of the companies participating in a merger, demerger, or acquisition fails to convene or pass a resolution due to lack of a quorum, insufficient votes, or other legal restriction, or the proposal is rejected by the shareholders meeting, the companies participating in the merger, demerger or acquisition shall immediately publicly explain the reason, the follow-up measures, and the preliminary date of the next shareholders meeting.

2. Other precautions

i. The company participating in a merger, demerger, or acquisition shall convene a board of directors meeting and shareholders meeting on the day of the transaction to resolve matters relevant to the merger, demerger, or acquisition, unless another act provides otherwise or the FSC is notified in advance of extraordinary circumstances and grants consent.

A company participating in a transfer of shares shall call a board of directors meeting on the day of the transaction, unless another act provides otherwise or the FSC is notified in advance of extraordinary circumstances and grants consent.

- ii. When participating in a merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of another company's shares, a company that is listed on an exchange or has its shares traded on an OTC market shall prepare a full written record of the following information and retain it for 5 years for reference:
 - 1. Date of the Board Meeting: The companies that participate in the merger, division or acquisition, except as otherwise provided by other laws or have special factors to report to the Association in advance, shall convene the board of directors and the shareholders' meeting on the same day to resolve the merger, division or acquisition of related matters.
